The Code of Behaviour of Scoil Mhuire na mBraithre, Clounalour, Tralee has been developed in accordance with 'Developing a Code of Behaviour: Guidelines for Schools', National Educational Welfare Board, 2008.

Policy Formulation

In formulating this policy the Board of Management completed the following steps;

1. Parents and staff were informed that an initial draft of the code of behaviour was available and they were invited to make submissions on the content of the code within a specified timeframe.
2. Class teachers were requested to discuss the topic of 'rules' with their classes and submit a list of pupils suggestions to the principal.
3. The initial draft of the code of behaviour was reviewed and where appropriate amended in-line with the feedback received.
4. The finalised draft of the policy was submitted for the patron's approval.

Aims & Objectives of the Code

The aims and objectives of the code are:

- To allow the school to function in an orderly way where children can make progress in all aspects of their development
- To create an atmosphere of respect, tolerance and consideration for others
- To promote positive behaviour and self-discipline, recognising the differences between children and the need to accommodate these differences
- To ensure the safety and well-being of all members of the school community
- To assist school staff, parents and pupils in understanding the systems and procedures that form part of the code of behaviour and to seek their co-operation in the application of these procedures
- To ensure that the system of rules, rewards, and sanctions are implemented in a fair and consistent manner throughout the school.

Whole School Approach

The Board of Management recognises the importance of creating consistent values, policies, practices and relationships that support the code of behaviour. Such an environment may only be formed by involving the entire school community and in this respect the board acknowledges the importance of the roles played by, the principal, teachers, ancillary staff and parents in the review and operation of the code.

Yard/Astro – Three-Strike Procedure

To promote safe, respectful and appropriate behaviour during break times, the school operates a three-strike procedure for incidents recorded in the Yard Book. When a pupil's name is entered in the Yard Book on three occasions, the pupil will be removed from the yard/astro for three consecutive school days. Following a further three entries (six entries in total), the pupil will be removed from the yard/astro for four consecutive school days. Following a further three entries (nine entries in total), the pupil will be removed from the yard/astro for five consecutive school days (one school week). Thereafter, each additional set of three Yard Book entries will result in a further five consecutive school days off the yard/astro. Yard Book entries are cumulative and do not automatically reset at the end of a term or school year. During any period when a pupil is removed from the yard/astro, appropriate supervision will be provided by the school. This procedure forms part of the school's overall Code of Behaviour and is intended to promote positive behaviour, pupil safety and consistency in the management of behaviour during break times.

Yard-book consequences apply separately from suspension. Where an incident results in both suspension and a third, sixth, ninth or subsequent third yard-book entry, the pupil must also complete the applicable period of yard/astro restriction. Days of suspension do not count towards this period, which will be completed when the pupil returns to school.

Behaviour in other School Areas

Each pupil is expected to:

- walk quietly when moving between classes in the school corridors
- behave appropriately when using the communal toilet areas

- Report inappropriate behaviour

Staff

It is the Principal's responsibility to ensure the school's Code of Behaviour is administered in a manner that is consistent and fair to all pupils. However each staff member has responsibility for the maintenance of discipline within common areas of the school.

Teaching staff are specifically responsible for the management of behaviour within their own class. They will:

- Discuss the Code of Behaviour with their class in an age appropriate manner at the beginning of the school year.
- Ensure the rules are displayed in the classroom.
- Encourage self-discipline and positive behaviour.
- Ensure there is an appropriate level of supervision at all times.
- Implement the reward/sanction scheme in a fair and consistent manner.
- Keep a written record of all incidents of continued, serious or gross misconduct. This record will indicate the advice and/or warnings given to the child on the misbehaviour and, the consequences of its repetition.

- Inform pupils when instances of misbehaviour on their part are being recorded.
- Report repeated instances of serious misbehaviour to the Principal.

Parents/Guardians

Parents/guardians play a crucial role in shaping attitudes in their children which produce positive Behaviour in school. Parents/guardians can assist the school by encouraging their children to abide by the school rules, encouraging punctuality and regular attendance and by ensuring that homework is given due time and effort.

Should a parent/guardian be concerned about any aspect of their child's behaviour they are welcome to make an appointment to discuss their concerns.

In cases of an identified pattern of misbehaviour parents will be invited to participate in the intervention process.

Promoting Positive Behaviour

As a general rule the school will endeavour to create an environment where positive behaviour is reinforced through praise and reward. School staff will use encouraging language and gestures, both in class and around the school, so that positive behaviour is instantly recognised and positively rewarded. Special attention will be paid to pupils who have previously been associated with poor behaviour so that not only good behaviour but also improvement in behaviour is acknowledged.

A reward scheme for promoting positive Behaviour will be used. Such rewards may include;

- Personalised letters to parent(s)/guardian(s)
- Special privileges

Inappropriate Behaviour

In order to establish a common understanding and consistent response the Code of Behaviour classifies misbehaviour into three levels based on the degree of disruption caused by the misconduct. The Code also 'Specifies the disciplinary actions and supportive interventions that will be employed.

Level One

Level 1: Behaviours

Level 1 behaviours are those that interfere with the orderly learning environment of the school, classroom, and common areas. Students learn through their mistakes. To this extent, responses to the daily behaviours, which occur in school, will be developmentally appropriate, instructive and positive. Children will be taught what is expected and how they should behave. Listed below are some examples of the types of Behaviour that are included in Level 1. Please note the list is not exhaustive.

Consequences for Level 1 behaviour are dependent upon the severity and frequency of the specific behaviour. Teachers will discipline students at level 1. Some examples of Level 1 responses are:

- Verbal reprimand/reminder(s)

- Reinforcement of alternative positive behaviour
- Temporary separation from peers, friends or others
- Prescribing additional work
- Loss of privileges

Level 1: Supportive Interventions

- Discussion of behaviour with the child
- Informal notes regarding incident/intervention/date. This information would be useful should a problem persist.

Level Two

Level 2: Disciplinary Actions

The disciplining of students for Level 2 behaviour is dependent upon the severity and frequency of the specific behaviour and developmentally appropriate levels. The disciplinary actions at Level 2 are administered by the Principal, and include the formal notification of parents, with written documentation. Some examples of Level 2 responses are:

- In school supervised detention
- Report submitted to the Board of Management

They represent a direct threat to the orderly operation of the school environment. Situations, which include illegal activity, may result in contact with the Garda Síochána after parental involvement. Listed below are some examples of the types of behaviour that are included in Level 3. Please note that the list is not exhaustive.
